Good News Report

- Teachers have been doing an incredible amount of summer professional learning this year.
- Jodi Henry has been accepted to the Northern Kentucky Chamber Leadership Institute.
- C.J. Fryer and Elsheika Pennerman were Next Generation Leadership finalists and Elsheika was the winner!
- Welcome to our new staff!
- Fall sports are off to a great start. There will be a fall sports kickoff at Camporosso on Sunday.
- Julian Sandberg was a VaxMillion winner for the state! He gets a full ride to a KY public college.
- Austin and Jacob run such an amazing band program and wonderful parent support.
- Cheer put on an expo after their UCA cheer camp with great attendance! We had 10 UCA All-Americans.
- Janelle Hawes and Michelle Klein have been doing a great job planning for our 71 interns and working with EDGE partners.
- The college application workshop that our counseling department put on last week was great.
- The Beechwood Community Night had a great turnout from staff and families. Thank you to Sally for her support with that.

Old Business

- There is no old business this month.

New Business:

- Campbell Eck presented a club proposal for The Evergreens Club (sustainability club). Motion to approve The Evergreens Club: Elsheika Pennerman. Second: Jodi Henry. Approved by consensus.
- Council reviewed the NKMSAA Bylaws since our middle school athletics participate in this group.

Budget Report:

- Council reviewed the SBDM Council and activities budget along with expenditures.

Principal's Report:

- Mr. Kaiser will review the 3 P's as expectations for staff (professional, positive, and progressive). After reviewing these expectations, all staff will identify an area of growth in those 3 P's.
- The new 3-year strategic plan (Blueprint for Excellence), the district goals, and the high school work towards these goals. He also reviewed the PD plan/professional learning cohorts working towards these goals.
- Committees, meetings, and schedules were reviewed to work towards the district/school goals.
- The general outline/agenda for the SBDM/BOE Joint Session on August 23rd was reviewed.
- We are still waiting on information from the state on a student SBDM member.
- The parking plan due to construction was reviewed. Beechwood Swim Club and Kroger are really helping us with this.
- The opening days schedule for staff was reviewed. The main focus is the 3-year strategic plan and PD cohorts towards the goals.
- New teacher mentorships were reviewed to support new staff.
- The counseling department vision preschool - twelfth grade was reviewed along with goals.
- The EDGE schedule to support experiential learning was reviewed.
- The BOE is paying for any senior who wants to retake the ACT to take it on October 19th due to last year being unusual due to COVID. We reviewed the plan to prepare them for this assessment.
- AP scores were reviewed along with action plans for improving AP outcomes.
- The data sheet for all of our students' assessment data and individual student reports was reviewed.
- We will once again use APEX for credit recovery and any necessary online classes (if we would have to offer a full virtual option).
- The assessment plan for the year for each grade level was reviewed.
- The annual purchasing cycle and cleaning supplies order were reviewed.
- Mr. Kaiser discussed a TeamBuildr app for strength/training/injury prevention tracking.
- Calendars and upcoming important dates were reviewed.

Adjournment:

- The next meeting will be September 13, 2021 at 3:15 pm.
